THE OLD VIC

NAME A BARN DOOR TERMS & CONDITIONS

Barn Doors available for naming are limited and will be offered on a first come, first served basis. It is not possible to request a specific Barn Door to be named.

Barn Doors themselves will not be engraved and inscriptions will be included on a dedicated plaque within the Backstage building. This panel will be refreshed at regular intervals but not each time a new name is received; we will inform you when your name will is likely to be included at the point of donation.

We will identify a Barn Door as named by you and a method for locating this Barn Door will be communicated to you.

Inscriptions will bear your name or that of whomever you choose for a minimum of 10 years.

Inscriptions should not be longer than 70 characters including spaces.

Inscriptions should include names only and no other wording will be accepted. Please contact emily.sanctuary@oldvictheatre.com should you wish to name your plaque ‘in memory’ of someone.

All inscriptions are subject to the approval of The Old Vic. You will receive a certificate containing details of your inscription once approved.

The Old Vic reserves the right to cancel, suspend or amend these terms and conditions, where it becomes necessary to do so. Any changes to these terms and conditions shall be effective immediately upon posting to this webpage.

Updated October 2026.

The Old Vic Theatre Trust 2000 is a registered charity no. 1072590 Limited company registration no. 3667822 Registered offices: 103 The Cut, London SE1 8NB