OLD VIC

NAME A SEAT TERMS & CONDITIONS

Inscriptions will bear your name or that of whomever you choose for the lifetime of the seat, for a minimum of 10 years.

Inscriptions should not be longer than 70 characters including spaces.

In addition to names, inscriptions may include the words 'In memory of'. Please contact emily.sanctuary@oldvictheatre.com if you would like to discuss alternative messaging.

All inscriptions are subject to the approval of The Old Vic. You will receive a certificate containing details of your inscription once approved.

Naming a seat does not include admission to individual performances or events or guarantee allocation of that seat for a particular performance.

The auditorium's seating formation is subject to change. The exact position of your named seat may therefore change within your selected level and we cannot accept requests to name specific seats. Seats may also occasionally be removed depending on the production's staging.

There is a minimum lead time of two weeks for plaques to be engraved and installed and in some cases may take longer.

The Old Vic reserves the right to cancel, suspend or amend these terms and conditions, where it becomes necessary to do so. Any changes to these terms and conditions shall be effective immediately upon posting to this webpage.
